On the other hand, Christmas is a joyous and festive season celebrated worldwide, commemorating the birth of Jesus Christ. It is a time marked by traditions, merriment, and the spirit of giving. As Christmas approaches, students find themselves caught in a delightful dichotomy of excitement. However, intertwined with this jubilation is the awareness that Periodic Test-2 awaits them, demanding focus and diligence in their studies. Despite the academic responsibilities, the prospect of celebrating Annual day, Christmas celebration add an extra layer of enthusiasm, motivating students to balance their preparations for both the festive season and their upcoming assessments.

All the best! 🍀
